

A Capital Fund has been established to ensure the longevity of the CIS and its intellectual legacy.

Your contribution to the Capital Fund is an investment in the Centre's long-term future. It will guarantee that the CIS can continue to play a major role in public policy development and to be an unrelenting force in the promotion of a free society. More importantly, it is an investment in promoting freedom. Only the returns from invested funds will be used, leaving the capital intact to grow and secure the CIS's future.
